

IO1.3 Best practice in Italy

|                                 |   |
|---------------------------------|---|
| Type of practice         | Guidelines  |
| Best practice title      | Linee guida per l'orientamentoOrientation Guidelines  |
| Period of implementation | From 2015, work in progress   |
| Location                 | National level, Ministry of education   |
| Geographical coverage    | National  |
| Contact                  | National Ministry of education, regional office for Tuscany (USR Toscana)   |
| Link                     | http://www.istruzione.it/orientamento   |
| Contact person           | n.a.  |
| Target audience          | Students choosing their courses , after compulsory courses (14 yrs old) or after other degrees and qualifications ( general education, vocational, technical)   |
| Objectives               | Tackle early school leaving due to a wrong choice   |
| Short description        | This guidelines propose a new model of training orientation capable of supporting the whole life-time of choice and transition of the person, and promoting employability, social inclusion and growth. |
| Activities/Action plan   | Guidelines available on web to teachers and trainers  |
| Resources/Products       | http://www.istruzione.it/orientamento/linee_guida_orientamento.pdf   |
| Impact                   | Good orientation for teachers , families and students   |
| Key words                | Orientation, students, families, stakeholders, teachers   |